CATOGNI'S CASE COMPROMISED .- The credit ors of B. Catogni held a meeting yesterday in the office of Register Forbes and sgreed to a compromise by which Mrs. Catogoi is to pay to her husband's creditors out of her separate estate $3,000. Claims to the amount of $11,500 were proved, and the creditors will therefore get about twenty-five per cent. of the amount due them. The $3,000 will be paid $1,000 cash, and the balance in the course of twelve months out of revenues accruing from Mrs. Catogni's property. Catogni was for a long time in the confectionery business here. Last year he made over to his wife his real estate, and soon after Christ- colored. mas went into bankruptcy, returning assets of little or no value. His creditors, suspecting fraud, instituted civil and criminal proceedings against him. The former were terminated by the compromise affected yesterday, and the latter were, too, as far as was in the power of the creditors. They will not insist on the United States district attorney indicting Catogni, but it is believed from the facts already revealed that the criminal prosecution may not be easily disposed of.

THE GAME OF FARO-ANOTHER CUSTOMER FOR THE COURTS. - On a warrant issued yesterday by Justice W. Hall Crew, on complaint of Mr. George F. Norton, Carl Singleton was arrested charged with unlawfully keeping and exhibiting a "game commonly called faro-bank." The amount lost by Norton and won by Siegleton is said to have been four hundred dollars. Singleton is a native of West Virginia, is thirty-six years of age, quite good-looking, and was here before and during the war, but left, and was absent for some time, but reappeared here some time ago. Justice White fixed bail in the sum of $1,000; but being unable to give it Singleton was locked up till this morning. Before he was put in his cell a reporter questioned him as to where, how, and when the money was lost; but he declined to give any information, saying in not over-polite manner that the whole case would be developed at ly-no doubt seeing that he had wounded drawal of certain vouchers, &c., therein committee. If the Council adopt the amenddelicate reportorial sensibilities—he said that | mentioned. he refused to answer any questions by advice of counsel, which was proper, no doubt. Singleton was arrested by Sergeant Daniel Wren at the residence of his father-in-law

(Mr. Roganni), No. 805 west Clay street. Mr. Roganni kept a faro-bank on Seventh street between Broad and Marshall, but fled from Richmond when the grand jury commenced indicting the sporting fraternity. Mrs. Camp, who was arrested here some time ago charged with attempting to obtain the Misses Purcell's trunks with their checks, lost or stelen in Washington, had a letter on her person addressed to Singleton at Roganni's establishment. Singleton is not known to the pelice here, and is believed to spend most of his time in Washington.

Judge L. M. Shoemaker was somewhat proceedings mentioned be sold. instrumental in causing the arrest, and the warrant was drawn by Mr. Cabell.
